WORKING ON DIFFERENT LEVELS

break out + relax

Chicago Modular Seating System uses the bold aesthetics of the Chicago sofa to form a range of configurable seating which offers flexibility and style.

work + study

With its versatility Chicago Modular strikes the right balance between working, dining and breakout to meet the requirements of the modern workplace or educational environment.

dining + coffee break

The bench style system features two back details, which allow variable combinations and offer comfort and back support. The benches are available as single and two seater. To introduce another level the range incorporates dining/working height benches and high stools and benches. Complementary tables are available in coffee, dining and poseur height.
