PEPI - THE FAMILY FEELING

The new overall shape of the Pepi task chair has given it a completely new look. However the initial concept of Pepi has not been lost, as the fully upholstered back is still creating vibrant, engaging workspaces with minimal effort.

Not only this but the new shape also matches so well with Pepi Mesh that the two go hand in hand in any office space, creating that family feeling, along with the Pepi Cantilever. Therefore suitable for kitting out every workforce with the best and most comfortable range available on the market.
